At the sale of personality of the late T. B. He is a "chip off the old block," and like his father, knows a good crop when he sees it.

A dispatch from Georgetown says: With corn, soaring here at $4 a barrel wholesale, the farmers have determined upon feeding their hogs with milk, there being an unusually large quantity of milk now, due to the excellent grass. One farmer has been testing the value of the cow's product for his swine, with the result that they averaged a gain of a pound a day in weight for every day of the first month and a pound and a fourth a day for each day of the succeeding month.

IN MEMORIAM

On Friday August 25, 1911, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Adams and took from them their little boy, James Lee. He was only 5 years and 15 days of age. He had been sick for some time, but no one expected his death so soon.

We had a little treasure once, He was our joy and pride.

We loved him, ah, perhaps too well For soon he slept and died.

All is dark within our dwelling, Lonely are our hearts today

For the one we loved so dearly, Has forever passed away.

Dear little hands, We miss them so

All through the day, Where ever we go.

All through the night, How lonely it seems,

For no little hands Wake us out of our dreams.

We miss them all thro' The weary hours,

Miss them as others Do sunshine and flowers.

Day time or night time, Wherever we go,

Dear little hands, We miss them so.

A heart broken sister Ethel Adams.
